

In September 2021, SHS Principal Stephen Patrina hosted a reception honoring students in the senior class being acknowledged for their academic excellence. The young people honored have demonstrated outstanding academic achievement as recognized by the National Merit Scholarship Program and the National Achievement Scholarship Program.

SHS is proud to announce the names of 17 seniors who were honored at the reception for being named a National Merit Commended Student: Olivia Birney, Jessica Bosenberg, Evan Chen, Matthew Dacey, Simon Green, Sofia Hanna, Kyle Jennings, Benjamin Knight, James Love, Aishee Mukherjee, Katherine Perlitz, Alexandra Peterson, Alexander Picoult, Christopher Powers, Korben Robinson, Lucas Thompson, and Amanda Witt. Only 34,000 students across the nation are named National Merit Commended Students, and the recognition honors their exceptional academic promise demonstrated by their outstanding performance on the PSAT.
